

Companion Dog Club Presents a Seminar by:

Julie Simmons

Dates: September 27 and 28, 2014
10803 N 72nd St, Omaha, NE 68102

ABOUT JULIE

Julie has titled 3 of her personal dogs to Obedience Trial Championships. Along the way these teams earned: multiple High in Trial and High Combined wins, including a Perfect 200 score.

She has exceptional problem solving skills and believes in using a variety of techniques to help her students succeed.

Julie believes in helping any trainer and dog team excel in the sport of dog obedience.

Julie has been helping people achieve their dog training goals for over 30 years. Her students have attained numerous titles from Beginner Novice thru UDX. She has assisted with several OTCH, High in Trial, and High Combined wins, as well as breed rankings. Examples of the breeds include: Poodles, Shelties, Border Collies, German Wirehaired Pointers, Golden Retrievers and many more.

Saturday: Beginning Obedience

For the Novice A/B trainer or anyone starting a new dog that wishes to teach the dog animated heeling using motivated and upbeat training techniques. We will also be working all the exercises that make up the Novice routine

Sunday: Competition Obedience Problem Solving

We will work on advanced exercises and problem solving for Novice, Open and Utility. Bring the fun and spark back to your obedience work! Don't be stuck in that "One Size Fits All" program, come give us a try.
